BIBLICAL NUMEROLOGY

300 SERIES
Understanding
Theology

August
2, 16, 23, 30

There are many ways to study the Bible. In this course, we will explore Biblical Numerology and Patterns; an investigation that serves as an additional tool in one's study of the Bible.

From the very beginning, we discover that God works in cycles and patterns. While some are easy to observe, others are concealed, except to those who would seek them out [Proverbs 25:2].

Did you know that you can observe the pattern of Babylon from the time of creation through to the 2nd Coming of Christ? It is both highly instructive and practical. By studying Biblical Numbers and Patterns, we can have a broader perspective of God's eternal plan. This is but one example of many Biblical gems that can be uncovered through God's Word.

GUEST TEACHER: Ps. Tim O Connell

300 SERIES
Understanding
Theology

August
2, 16, 23, 30

Romans can be called “The Greatest of All Letters” because of the tremendous amount of doctrine and instruction that it contains.

Many of the great doctrines of the Christian church come directly from this epistle, and the Church as we know it would not even exist without this precious book. In this class, we’re going to look at a letter that has perhaps accomplished more than any other letter ever sent; the epistle of Romans.

GUEST TEACHER: Les Wheeldon

CAN WE TRUST THE BIBLE?

NEW!

300 SERIES
Understanding
Theology

August
2, 16, 23, 30

Many people today say that the Bible is just “a collection of stories”, is historically flawed, and isn’t the inspired Word of God.

However, we believe that all 66 books of the Bible are inerrant and are “useful for teaching, rebuking, correcting, and training in righteousness” (2 Timothy 3:16).

This course is designed for anyone who wants to:

- [1] understand and defend the doctrine of inerrancy
- [2] grow in your appreciation of God's Word

Many of us may be concerned and remain in conflict with the fast changing cultural norms of today's world. Part two of this important course aims to equip attendees with handles on how to disciple the next generation holistically and to stand firm amidst the conflicting values that are propagated.

Come and be equipped with handles to engage the culture with sound reasoning. This course includes conversations that every thoughtful Christian should have about faith, sexuality, and gender.

GUEST TEACHER: Jason Wong

FINDING YOUR VOICE IN THE DIGITAL WORLD

NEW!

500 SERIES
Effective
Christianity

September
6 & 13

How can each of us be effective evangelists wherever we are placed?

While times may change and technology evolves, the Gospel never changes. Hence, our methods and platforms must be modified so that we can effectively reach the world.

The digital realm has many untapped opportunities for Christian evangelism, leadership and kingdom influence into our communities.

As more and more people spend time online, it is imperative for the church to actively engage through this space.

GUEST TEACHER: Isaac Ong

8

LESSONS FROM THE KINGS OF OLD

NEW!

300 SERIES
Understanding
Theology

August
2, 16, 23, 30

Many of us love a good superhero movie – aside from the action, we love the prequels and sequels that trace the development of our favourite characters and reveal the reasons for some of their choices. Very often, we also try to understand what makes the hero, or the anti-hero.

The kings in the Old Testament have similar, if not more interesting complexities and choices which account for their successes or failures in their walks with God. Taking participants through a selection of stories of the kings, the objective of this teaching series is two-fold: first, to elucidate important content lessons that apply in different aspects of our lives; second, to apprise participants of bible reading tips that can enable them to draw precious lessons out from a different era.

GUEST TEACHER: Dr. Tan Seow Hon
