

Rediscovering
Eden

The Lord God planted a garden eastward in Eden,
and there He put the man whom He had formed.
9 And out of the ground the Lord God made every tree grow that is pleasant to the sight and good for food.
The tree of life was also in the midst of the garden,
and the tree of the knowledge of good and evil.

Genesis 2:8-9

And the Lord God commanded the man, saying,
"Of every tree of the garden you may freely eat;
¹⁷ but of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil
you shall not eat, for in the day that you eat of it you shall surely die."

Genesis 2:16-17

Throughout our lives, we'll have to choose from which tree we want to eat, because between them lies the focal point of the dichotomy between the Kingdom of God and this present evil age.

Moses was one hundred and twenty years old when he died. His eyes were not dim nor his natural vigor diminished.

Deuteronomy 34:7

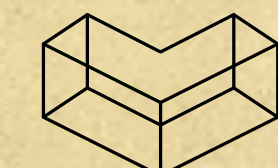

Old Testament: Caleb's Testimony

I am as strong this day as on the day that Moses sent me; just as my strength was then, so now is my strength for war, both for going out and for coming in.

LeJoshua 14:11

I have come to give you Life and life more abundantly.

John 10:10
